THANK YOU! THANK YOU! THANK YOU!

Forever in your debt

The Ramble is truly a community-driven celebration. There are so many people that make it happen with their energy, enthusiasm and inspiration that it would be impossible to list them all here! With every event on the map, several people collaborated and gladly forfeited free time to offer a quality experience for visitors. These are the people we need to thank for making the 2013 Ramble a reality!!!

There is also a group of folks who have agreed to be on a board of sorts, and who have been dedicated to contributing to the enjoyment of the Ramble year after year. They are an eclectic mix of artists, yogis, designers, community activists, teachers, musicians, performers, writers, and the owners of some of the most interesting businesses in Burlington, including an enchanted junk shop, a community buying website, featuring Vermont businesses, and a wildly successful local cafe. The following folks have been helping make The Ramble happen since its inception:

- Heather Driscoll, Co-Founder; Coordinator 2004-10
- Lee Anderson, Co-Founder
- Jeanne Waltz, Ramble Co-Coordinator 2011-Current; Merchandise Maven 2005-Current
- Michael Nedell, Web Master and Field Day Mastermind 2005-Current
- Phinneus Sonin, What does this guy NOT do?!
- Jan Berger, Decaturfest Liaison Since 2010;
- Darshana Bolt, Co-Coordinator 2010-11; Volunteer Extraordinaire 2013
- Sean Melinn, Map 2010-Current Since 2011;
- AJ Rossman, on hiatus 2013
- Jennifer Blair, Treasurer Since 2013;
- Rachel Daley
- Tiffany Silliman
- Alicia Taylor, Put the "Fun" in Fundraising!
- Laura Luchini, 2013 Co-Coordinator

The 2013 Ramble would also like to thank all of the volunteers who showed up to print Ramble gear, and volunteer on the day of the Ramble. You know who you are, and we hope you have enjoyed our running facebook and website thank yous!

There are a few volunteers who have really stood out this year: Melissa Holden, who has been helping to sell Ramble gear for 4 years now; Haley Mathis from The Old North End Farmer's Market who allowed Jeannie to promote the Ramble during the markets; James Kochalka, who contributed not one, but three works of art for Ramble use; and Dave Davidson, who completely revamped the website this year. Really, we're lost without you!!!

This year's RAMBLE Superhero is

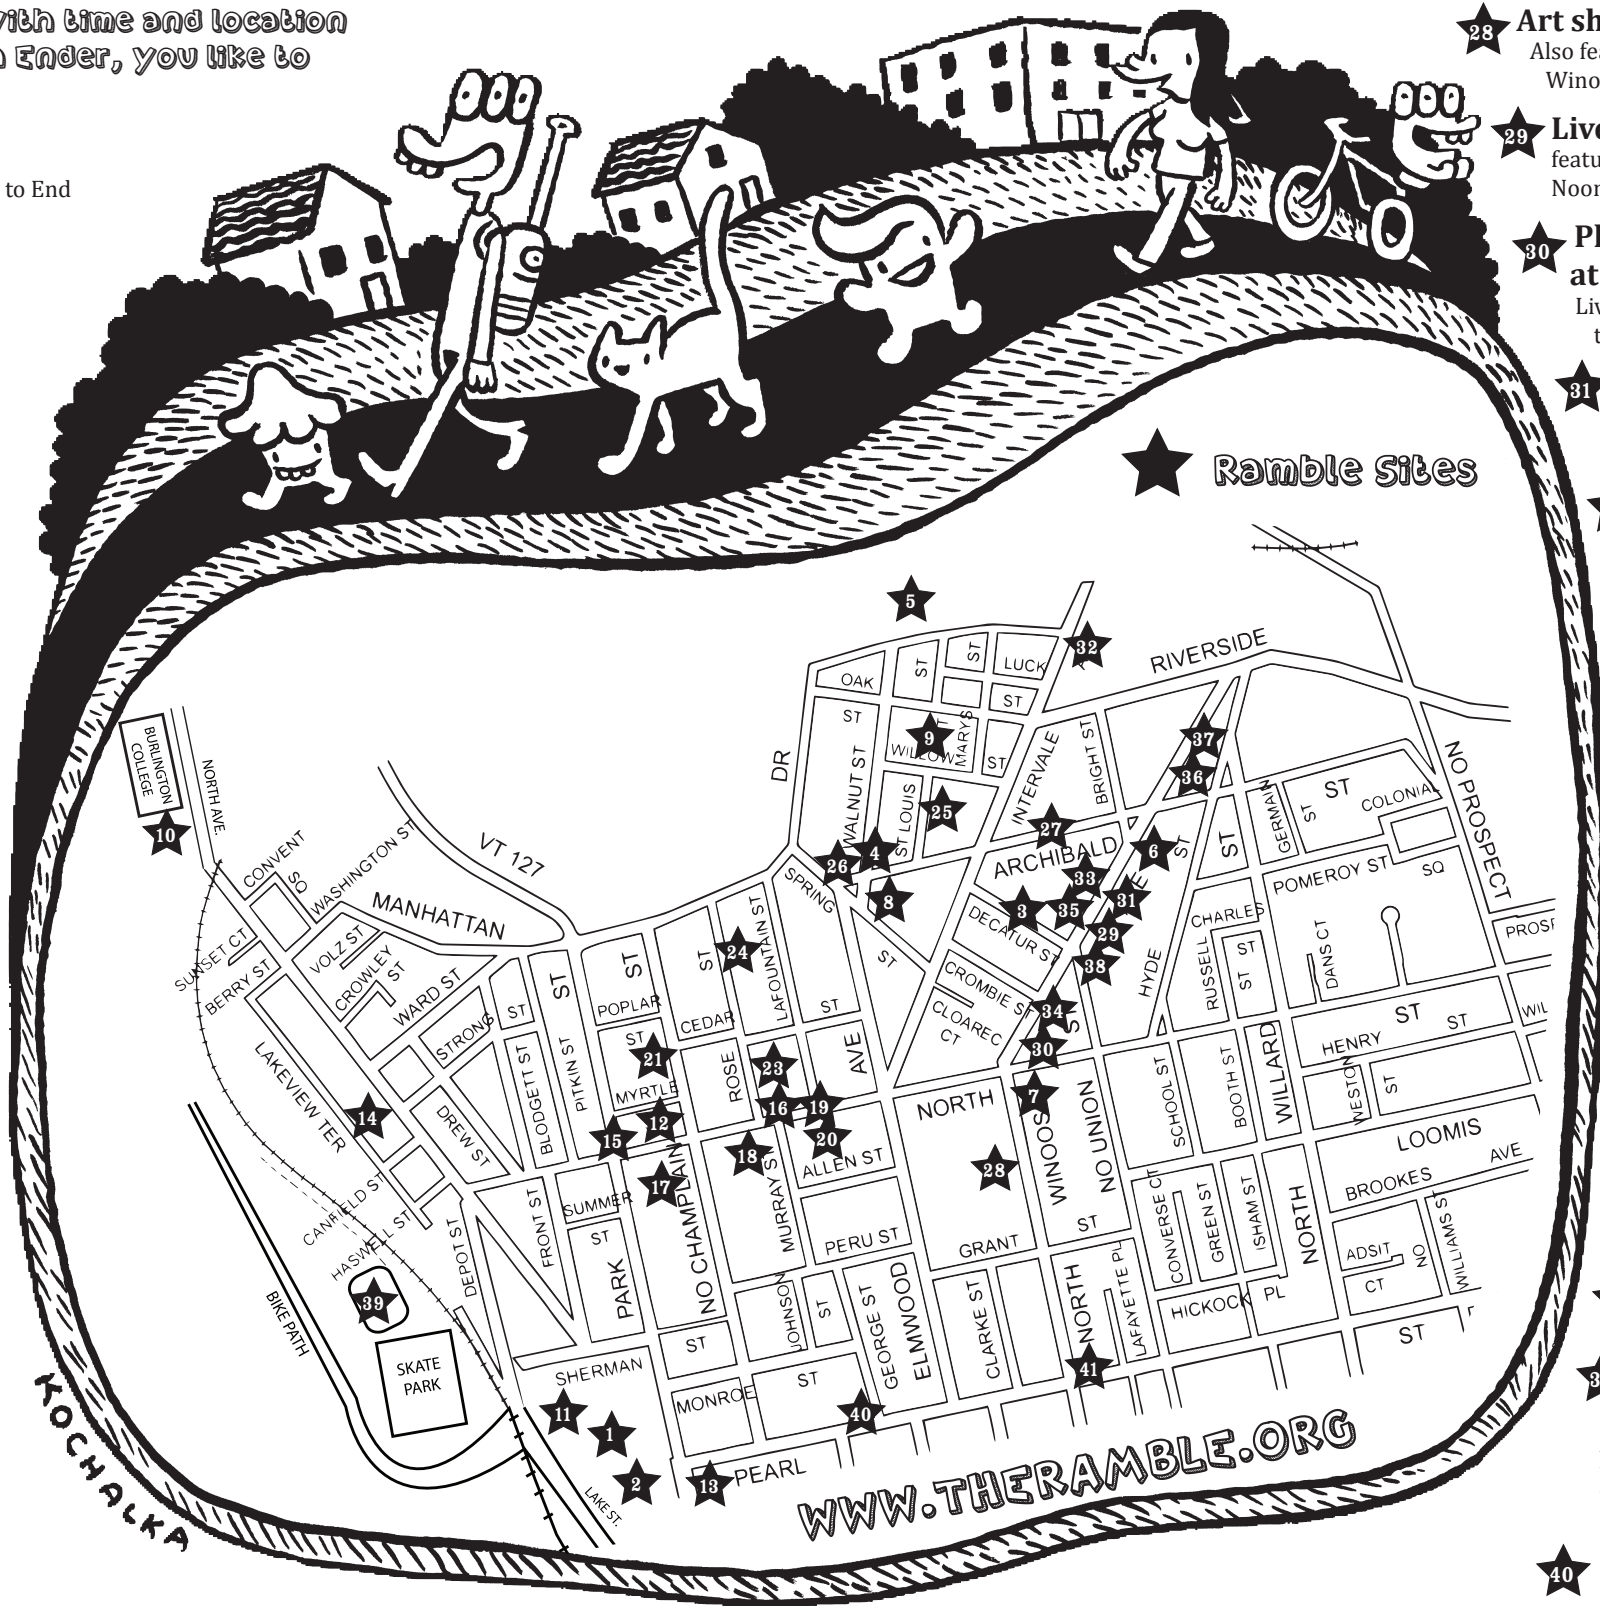

Eric Hoekstra

We at Ramble Central thank him and our other wonderful sponsors of this year's event:

Gordon Stamps and Engraving, T-Ruggs, One of a Kind B&B, Opportunities Credit Union, Vet To Pet, Nunyun's, Rose Street Artists Co-op, Blue Cat, Emma Mulvaney Stanak, Ben Gordesky, and Evolution Yoga.

We have made an effort to list the events with time and location in mind, but we know if you're an Old North Ender, you like to take your own path. Happy Ramblin'!
